

Choose the correct discourse marker from each group of three.

1) Antonio Gaudi, born in Spain in 1852, is considered to be one of the greatest architects of his time. AS IT HAPPENS / FOR EXAMPLE / IN PARTICULAR , he is known for his work La Sagrada Familia, which, it is hoped, will ACTUALLY / EVENTUALLY / HARDLY be finished.

2) Walt Disney, the American animator and film producer, made his name with the creation of many cartoon characters. NOTWITHSTANDING / INCIENTALLY / ON TOP OF THAT , Mickey Mouse was originally called 'Mortimer'.

3) Whether you like him or not, and ADMITTEDLY / IN PARTICULAR / TO BE HONEST I don't think Michael Jackson is an important figure in the history of popular music. AT FIRST / IN ADDITION / PRESUMABLY he performed with his four older brothers in the pop group The Jackson Five, before later going solo.

4) Many people consider Gary Grant (1904-1986) to be one of the best film actors ever. IT'S NO WONDER / EVEN SO / ANYWAY , he was never awarded an Oscar for a specific performance.

5) Muhammad Ali is one of the most admired figures in the history of boxing. ACTUALLY / AS A MATTER OF COURSE / TO START WITH , the former world heavyweight boxer fought under the name Cassius Clay. Then, in 1964, after converting to Islam, he changed his name.

6) Few men rank alongside Charlie Chaplin in the history of the cinema. He was a brilliant actor and a distinguished director. ALL IN ALL / BY THE WAY / TO SUM UP , he was a genius.